Description of the Related Art A propulsion device in which a propeller is arranged substantially in the form of an ellipse or substantially an ellipse and the height of a lifting surface is greater than a bottom length is already known. In the propulsion device, a flow generated by a driving of the propeller is allowed to pass over the lifting surface which is higher than the bottom of the watercraft, whereby the watercraft is driven forward. A watercraft equipped with such a propulsion device is described in, for example, Japanese Patent Laid-Open No. 2013-248735. According to the propulsion device described in Japanese Patent Laid-Open No. 2013-248735, in order to drive the watercraft with a sufficiently large torque, the size of the lifting surface is set to be greater than the bottom of the watercraft. Therefore, in the watercraft provided with the propulsion device, the size of the lifting surface is greater than the size of a hull of the watercraft. The influence of the increase in the size of the lifting surface becomes larger the more the diameter of the propeller is increased. Therefore, the size of the lifting surface cannot be increased in proportion to an increase in the diameter of the propeller, and therefore, the drag of

À Chess expert, grandmaster Timur Gareev shares his ideas and adventures while preparing to set a world record in blindfold. How the blind game goes, what difficulties you encounter along the way and what you should be prepared for - all this can be learned firsthand. Blindfold is a game of chess with one exception - you can't see the chessboard. Before you lies only a piece of paper on which the moves will be written. All pieces and pawns will also be moved. However, there are also grandmasters in the world who play blind. This means that they do not see the chessboard. They are literally playing blind. How im it fffad4f19a
