The Copyright Office defines an artistic work as an original literary, dramatic, musical, or artistic work, such as a poem, short story, essay, translation, sculpture, painting, drawing, engraving, lithograph, tapestry, sculpture, ceramics, engraving, wood-block print, photography, film, or graphic design. There are no fees or costs to request permission to use an artistic work. To file a copyright application, you must register with the Copyright Office. See the Copyright Office's Copyright Office, Regulations, and General Rules for further information. Thank you. I appreciate it. Thanks.
