Cameron Lewis Superstar and MVP of the Varsity Basketball League (VBL) last year, Cameron Lewis played a massive role in the development of the Thunderbirds' season last year, but he'll still be an important member of their line-up this year. The tough-but-unselfish junior forward will be good value for the points-per-minute, and he could see his game take another leap after being put under the wing of basketball coach Tim Gale. Lewis is a perfect fit for the Thunderbirds' system, and is another good example of the team's main six backs. Jabari Phillips Jabari Phillips had a tough year last year in the VBL as he had to split the coaching duties of Nigel Blanks and Tim Gale. Now, he's back in the groove and should be a huge part of the Thunderbirds' line-up this year, despite being close to bolting away when he was told of his fate. Phillips is just one of a number of players coming back from injury, but he and Regan Bellingham are the stars of the show. Just 17, Phillips was a force last year and averaged a league-best 18.7 points per game. The former Chatham West Schoolboy has returned to the Thunderbirds for a second season, and is sure to be a big hit. Matt Zecchin An injury-prone player, Matt Zecchin really came on in the second half of last season.
